Information to Provisionally Selected Candidates of ANU-APRCET-2019 in Online Process

Dear Candidates,

The candidates who selected for provisional admissions into M.Phil. / Ph.D. courses in the subjects Mathematics, Education, Commerce, Management, Physical Education & Sports Sciences, Chemistry, English, Physics and Computer Science & Applications can download their allotment letters in our website www.anudoa.in by using their Hall Ticket number and Mobile number. Further, the selected candidates are requested to submit their allotment letter in the concerned departments.

Moreover, the list of candidates selected in each department was sent to the concerned departments for further process of final admission. However, the selected candidates will get information from concerned departments regarding guide selection and fee payment for further process of final admission.
