2. FRD should establish contacts with the departmental alumni and should prepare a Directory of Distinguished Alumni. FRD should also maintain an Alumni Register-cum VISIT book in the department and record whenever the distinguished alumni visit the department. If the Alumni visitor is an expert in his field of specialization, the students would be immensely benefited, if the FRD arranges a Guest Lecture in the department. Intimation to this effect may also be posted to the Secretary, ANU Alumni Association for information.
3. The FRD should educate the students about the alumni activities and enroll the outgoing students as members of ANU Alumni Association. The FRD may also recommend a very poor student for financial help to ANU Alumni Association if the student approaches for help for paying college fee/examination fee/a part of the Medical bill.
4. The FRDs are suggested to convince the students and invite the Distinguished Alumni to participate in the Welcome/Valedictory functions of the departments organized by students. This will enhance the bondage between the students and its departmental alumni and perhaps their speeches may inspire the students to mould their careers.
5. The FRDs are the stretching hands of the Acharya Nagarjuna University Alumni Association and they should involve as many faculties, students and old students as they can to participate in the Acharya Nagarjuna University Alumni Association functions/Guest Lectures.
6. The FRDs should cooperate with the Acharya Nagarjuna University Alumni Association in all its endeavors to raise funds or financial resources to create infrastructure facilities in Acharya Nagarjuna University for the benefit of the students/faculty/alumni and to create merit prizes/Alumni Awards to encourage students/faculty in research and other extra-curricular activities. In this connection the FRDs are informed that the donations made to Acharya Nagarjuna University Alumni Association would get 50% Tax exemption under section 80G of Income Tax Act of 1961. The FRDs may encourage the departmental faculty to utilize this provision to contribute to Acharya Nagarjuna University Alumni Association whenever the faculty feels Income Tax burdened.
7. The FRDs should submit their alumni activities conducted in the departments to the Acharya Nagarjuna University Alumni Association from time to time to include in the Acharya Nagarjuna University Alumni News. They should also inform the visits of the faculty/alumni to the foreign countries, conducting conferences/seminars getting research grants/awards or any other distinction/laurel conferred on the researcher/department be intimated to the Acharya Nagarjuna University Alumni Association for its appropriate use in the various fora.
8. c) Association Chapters: The Executive Committee may recognize the Local Chapters at important places where the substantial numbers of old students are residing.
