

Community Social Responsibility, Acharya Nagarjuna University College

CSR Report for the Period April 2017- March 2018

Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer

Coordinator

Community Social Responsibility

Acharya Nagarjuna University College

One Month Free Training Programme on Fabric Painting for Women from Marginalized Community

Inauguration Programme

Inauguration of the One Month Free Training Programme on Fabric Painting for Women from Marginalized Community from 16-8-2017 to 15-09-2017 was held at Nethaji Nagar, Repalli, Guntur District on 16-08-2017. The programme aims at giving training on Fabric painting on clothes. The programme was inaugurated by Dr. Saraswati Raju Iyer, Coordinator of Community Social Responsibility. She stressed the significance of this programme in developing their employability skills and urged them to make best use of the opportunity and also think in terms of marketability of the products so that they prepare good quality ones. Dr. M.Venkata Ramana, Programme Officer of Centre for Community Social Responsibility encouraged the women to learn painting well so that they can supplement their family income. The Instructor also participated in the programme. On the whole 50 women got themselves enrolled for the programme and expressed their interest in fabric painting so that it helps them to stand on their own feet.

One Day Training Programme on Repair & Servicing of Sewing Machines for Middle Class Women

One Day Training Programme on Repair & Servicing of Sewing Machines for Middle Class Women was conducted at Sampath Nagar, Guntur District on 18-08-2017. The programme was conducted in this community since the trainees are from middle income group who make a livelihood through tailoring it was felt that such a programme would help them in tackling the day to day problems they encounter while using the sewing machines. The instructor of the programme taught them the nuances of repair and servicing of sewing machines and also gave a demonstration. He divided the group into smaller groups and taught them. Dr. Saraswati Raju Iyer, Coordinator and Dr.M.Venkata Ramana Programme Officer of Centre for Community Social Responsibility organized the programme. On the whole 45 members participated in the programme and were given certificate of participation at the end of the day.

One Day Free Training Programme on Preparation of Home Needs for Marginalized Women

Marginalized women face lot of hardships in their lives due to their poor socio-economic conditions and hence it is needless to say that training in income generation activities help in social and economic empowerment. One Day Training Programme on Preparation of Home Needs for marginalized women was organized in Prof.M.V.S.Koteswara Rao Memorial Public School at Adavithakillapadu, Guntur District on 08-09-2017. This programme was inaugurated by Prof.A.Rajendra Prasad, Vice-Chancellor, Acharya Nagarjuna University. He reiterated the importance of skills training for women in the process of empowerment. Prof. K.R.S.Sambasiva Rao, Rector of the university encouraged women to take up income generating activities. Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer, Coordinator, Centre for Community Social Responsibility explained about the activities taken up by this centre and briefed about how this programme would contribute in their lives. Ms. P.Bhulakshmi, the Instructor of the programme from Lal Puram, Guntur gave training on preparation of 6 items namely Preparation of detergent powder, cleaning powder, phenol, pain balm, liquid blue and candles by giving demonstration. Apart from demonstration she also gave the list of items required for preparation of these items, the procedure of preparation, the raw material required and where to purchase these items were explained. Fifty members participated in the training programme by registering themselves by submitting the filled in application forms. Certificates were given to the participants by Prof.A.Rajendra Prasad. The programme was conducted from 10.00.a.m. – 5.00 p.m. Dr.M.Venkata Ramana, the Programme Officer of the Centre for Community Social Responsibility helped in organizing the programme and spoke about the importance of this programme. Mr.Ch.Haribaabu, School Secretary, Principal, Ms.L.S.Bhargavi participated in the programme.

Forty Five Days Training Programme on Garment Making for S.C., & S.T. Women

Inaugural Session

Inaugural function of the Two Months Free Tailoring Programme for Scheduled Caste Women from 12-09-2017 to 26-10-2017 was organized at S.C.Colony community hall at Peddapalem, Ponnur Mandal, Guntur district on 13-09-2017. The Chief Guest for the programme Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer, Coordinator, Centre for Community Social Responsibility urged the women folk to master the skill so that it helps in the process of development. Sri.V.Srinivasa Rao, MPTC, Sri.Reba Panthagani Thomas, Pastor, spoke on the occasion and expressed their joy in conducting the programme in their village and appealed to the participants to make best use of the opportunity. They further thanked the university officials for granting the programme for the empowerment of women in their community. Dr.M.Venkata Ramana the Programme Officer, Centre for Community Social Responsibility said that enhancing their skills by learning tailoring would help in supplementing their family income.

One Day Training Programme on Repair & Servicing of Sewing Machines for Victims of Human Trafficking

One Day Training Programme on Repair & Servicing of Sewing Machines for Victims of Human Trafficking at Ujwala Home, Opp.ANU, Guntur District was organized on 21-09-2017. The programme was inaugurated by Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer, Coordinator of Community Social Responsibility. She stressed the importance of the programme. Since the trainees are from the vulnerable group who could make a livelihood through tailoring it was felt that such a programme would help them in tackling the day to day problems they encounter while using the sewing machines. The instructor of the programme Mr.Karimulla taught them the nuances of repair and servicing of sewing machines and also gave a demonstration. He divided the group into smaller groups and taught them. Sr.Roselina, Director of the home and Ms.Rupa, Counsellor participated in the programme. Dr.M.Venkata Ramana Programme Officer, Centre for Community Social Responsibility assisted in organizing the programme. On the whole 50 members participated in the programme.

Two Months Free Training Programme for Scheduled Caste Women Valedictory Function

Valedictory function of the Two Months Free Tailoring Programme for Scheduled Caste Women from 12-09-2017 to 26-10-2017 was organized at S.C.Colony community hall at Peddapalem, Ponnur Mandal, Guntur district on 26-10-2017. The Chief Guest for the programme Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer, Coordinator, Centre for Community Social Responsibility expressed her joy on the successful completion of the programme wherein the trainees mastered the skill and expressed confidence in earning an additional income to their families. Sri.V.Srinivasa Rao, MPTC, Sri.Reba Panthagani Thomas, Pastor, spoke on the occasion and expressed their gratitude in conducting the programme in their village and congratulated the participants for successful completion of the training. They further thanked the university officials for granting the programme for the womenfolk in their village. Dr.M.Venkata Ramana the Programme Officer, Centre for Community Social Responsibility appreciated the trainees for learning tailoring that would help in supplementing their family income. The trainees gave their feedback and expressed satisfaction on mastering the skill and also in supplementing their family income. Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer the Chief Guest of the function gave certificates to the trainees.

One Day Awareness Programme for Urban Women on Swatcha Andhra Mission

One Day Awareness Programme for Urban Women on Swatcha Andhra Mission was organized at Sri Harshini P.G. College, Ongole, Prakasam district on 19-12-2017. Dr.Babitha, Coordinator of Food and Nutrition department of Acharya Nagarjuna University spoke about the importance of hygiene and its relationship to health. She also reiterated the role of women in promoting healthy life in our society especially in relation to Swatcha Andhra Mission. Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer, Coordinator, Centre for Community Social Responsibility presided over the function. In her presidential address she stressed the important role of urban women in promoting Swatcha Andhra Mission. Dr.M.Venkata Ramana the Programme Officer, Centre for Community Social Responsibility told about the need for promotion of clean India and how women can play a vital role. Sri Shyam Sunil, In charge Director, Jan Sikshan Samstha, Ongole spoke about the importance of cleanliness and clean society. Sri.Ramaswamy, Principal of Sri Harshini DED College participated in the programme.

Release of Annual Report of Centre for Community Social Responsibility

Prof.A.Rajendra Prasad, Honourable Vice-Chancellor of Acharya Nagarjuna University and Prof.P.Narasimha Rao, Vice-Chairman, Andhra Pradesh State Council for Higher Education, Amaravathi released the Annual Report of Centre for Community Social Responsibility on 19-12-2017 at a function organized by the Centre for Community Social Responsibility in the Committee Room at Ravindranath Tagore Administrative building in the campus. The annual report was prepared by the Centre for the documentation purpose to project the image of the university in reaching out to the community through various community outreach and extension activities. Prof.K.John Paul, Registrar, ANU, Prof.M.Koteswara Rao, Dean, Centre for College Development Council, ANU, Prof.Rosaiah, Officer on Special Duty, ANU, Prof.M.V.N.Sarma, Former Registrar, ANU participated in the Book release function and congratulated Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer and Dr.M.Venkata Ramana for bringing out this publication.

Two Months Training Programme on Tailoring for Weaker Section Women Inaugural Function

Inauguration of Two Months Training Programme on Tailoring for Weaker Section Women at Adavithakkelupadu Village, Guntur Rural from 20-12-2017 to 19-02-2018 was organized on 20-12-2017. The programme was inaugurated by Prof.Sankara Pichtaiah, Director, Centre for Distance Education, ANU at M.V.S.Koteswara Rao Memorial School at Sundaraiah Nagar. He stressed the need for such programmes for women empowerment and told them to make best use of the opportunity given to them. The programme was organized to encourage women belonging to the weaker section in promoting women empowerment. Dr.Ammami wife of Late Prof. M.V.S.Koteswara Rao in the name of whom this School was started stressed the importance of such programmes for women so that they could fight against poverty by utilizing such programmes. She appreciated the Centre for Community Social Responsibility for organizing this programme in their School. Smt.Pushpa Rani donated two Sewing Machines for the training programmes. She thanked the university authorities for their support in taking up such activities particularly in their community where the women are really in need of such programmes. Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer, Coordinator for discharging activities on Community Social Responsibility by the University said that the university does not confine to teaching alone but also works for the cause of the society by implementing the extension activities so as to enable the community to get empowered. Dr.M.Venkata Ramana, the Programme Officer for discharging activities on Community Social Responsibility by the University helped in organizing the programme and spoke about the importance of this programme. Sri.Hari Babu and Smt.Bhargavi, Instructor participated in the inaugural programme.

One Day Free Training Programme on Preparation of Home Needs for Middle Class Housewives

One Day Free Training Programme on Preparation of Home Needs for Middle Class Housewives was organized at Rompicherla Mandal, Narsaraopet, Guntur District on 04-01-2018. This programme was inaugurated by Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer, Coordinator for discharging activities on Community Social Responsibility by the University. She explained about the activities taken up by this cell and briefed about this programme in particular. Ms. M.Vijayalakshmi, the Instructor of the programme from Narsaraopet gave training on preparation of 6 items pertaining to Home Needs such as Preparation of detergent powder, cleaning powder, phenol, pain balm, liquid blue and candles by giving demonstration. Apart from demonstration she also gave the list of items required for preparation of these items, the procedure of preparation, the raw material required and where to purchase these items were explained. Forty members participated in the training programme by registering themselves by submitting the filled in application forms. During the Valedictory function the coordinator said that such a programme not only helps in self employment but also helps in giving employment opportunities to others. She also reiterated that this programme should help in income generation and hence they need to enhance their employability skills through this training programme. The programme was conducted from 10.00.a.m. – 5.00 p.m. Dr.M.Venkata Ramana, the Programme Officer of Centre for Community Social Responsibility helped in organizing the programme and spoke about the need for this programme for housewives. Certificates were distributed to the participants.

Rally on Open Defecation Free Society

In order to create awareness in Universities and make students active players in promoting Open Defecation Free Society an awareness rally was organized in the University campus by the Centre for Community Social Responsibility on 04-01-2018. Prof.K.John Paul, Registrar inaugurated the rally and spoke about the importance of Open defecation free society and the role of Centre for Community Social Responsibility. Prof.M.Koteswara Rao, Dean, Centre for College Development Council, Prof.Prameela Rani, Principal, ANU College of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Sri.Reddy Prakash, Member Vikasa, Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer, Coordinator with the help of Dr.M.Venkata Ramana, Programme Officer and Dr.Y.Ashok Kumar, Asst.Professor, Dept. of Sociology & Social Work, Students, Research Scholars, Teaching and Non-Teaching faculty of Acharya Nagarjuna University participated in the rally by raising slogans on Open Defecation Free Society. The rally was organized from Gandhi statue to main gate of the University.

Book Distribution Programme to Students of Engineering College

Engineering college books were distributed free of cost to students of ANU College of Engineering, Acharya Nagarjuna University, Guntur on 19-01-2018. The Chief Guest of the programme, Prof.A.Rajendra Prasad, Vice-Chancellor of Acharya Nagarjuna University inspired the students pursuing Engineering to develop the habit of reading and explained its importance in acquiring knowledge. He recalled his student days by sharing his experience of being a voracious reader and how it helps in moulding the personality of students. He congratulated the Centre for CSR for undertaking such useful activities in the community. Prof.Srinivas Reddy, the Principal of the college, Prof.Siddhaiah, Dean, Prof.Sankara Pitchaiah, Director, Centre for Distance Education, Prof.Rosaiah, OSD, Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer, Coordinator, CSR and Dr.M.Venkata Ramana, Programme Officer, CSR spoke on the occasion. The books were distributed free of cost to all the students by the Chief Guest, Prof.A.Rajendra Prasad.

One Day Nutrition Demonstration Programme for Inmates of Ujwala Home

One Day Nutrition Demonstration Programme for Inmates of Ujwala Home who are victims of human trafficking was organized in their home on 20-01-2018. The programme was inaugurated by Smt. Nannapaneni Rajakumari, Chairperson, Women's Commission of Andhra Pradesh. In her inaugural address she stressed the need for nutritious food in building human personality and said that such type of programmes are a boon to girls who are victims of trafficking. Prof. A.Rajendra Prasad, Honourable Vice-Chancellor of Acharya Nagarjuna University was the Guest of Honour for the programme. He reiterated the importance of nutritious food for inmates of the home in promoting their health and congratulated the centre for organizing such important programmes in this home. Coordinator of Community Social Responsibility Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer said that women play an important role in providing nutritious food to their family and the awareness about nutrition to them are also important. She spoke about the relationship between health and nutrition and said that this programme is useful since women tend to neglect their health. As a resource person Dr.Babitha & Dr.K.V.Shantisri from Department of Food &

Nutrition, Acharya Nagarjuna University stressed the importance of including green leafy vegetable in the diet of their children. They said that by taking green leafy vegetables, fruits they will be healthy. They gave awareness on nutrition through their lectures as well as demonstration. They demonstrated multigrain laddu and snacks made up of green leafy vegetable which was served to the inmates. The inmates felt happy and relished the food items that were served by the resource persons. They reiterated the importance of taking low cost nutritious food for the overall development of the personality of the inmates. The participants got their doubts clarified during the question answer session. Dr.M.Venkata Ramana, Programme Officer told about the importance of consuming nutritious food so that they enjoy good health. Sr.Roselina, Director, Ujwala Home, Smt.Rupa, Counsellor, Ujwala Home participated in the function and thanked the university authorities for organizing this programme in their home.

One Day Awareness Programme for Girls Students on Swatcha Andhra Mission

As part of promotion of Swatcha Andhra Mission by the centre for community Social Responsibility One Day Awareness Programme for Girls Students on Swatcha Andhra Mission was organized at Women's College, Guntur district on 28-02-2018. Prof. A.Rajendra Prasad, Honourable Vice-Chancellor of Acharya Nagarjuna University was the Chief Guest of the programme. In his Chief Guest address he urged students to think globally and act locally. Dr.A.V.Swamy, head of the department of Environmental Science, ANU shared his expertise on the role of girls students in promoting Swatcha Andhra Mission as a resource person. Around 120 girl students participated in the programme. Sri.Pulla Reddy, Principal, Smt.Anuradha Devi, Dr.Kusuma Kumari, Smt.Nagachandrika, Smt.Aparna Sitaram, Smt. Sujatha, Smt. Vijalakshmi, Faculty members of the College participated in the programme. Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer, Coordinator stressed the significance of girl students in promoting Swatcha Andhra Mission by reaching out to the communities through awareness programmes. Dr.M.Venkata Ramana, Programme Officer helped in organizing the programme.

One Day Workshop on Child Rights

One Day Workshop on Child Rights was organized by department of Sociology & Social Work and Centre for community Social Responsibility, Dept. of Sociology & Social Work on 10-03-2018. Since Child Rights is an important topic for students of Sociology & Social Work this workshop was organized in the Seminar Hall of the department of Sociology & Social Work, Acharya Nagarjuna University. Students from Maris Stella College, Prabhas College, S.R.R. College, Prabhala College, Guntur Women's College and from the department of Sociology & Social Work, Acharya Nagarjuna University participated in the workshop. This workshop was sponsored by Child Rights Advocacy Foundation, Vijayawada. Prof. A.Rajendra Prasad, Honourable Vice-Chancellor of Acharya Nagarjuna University was the Chief Guest of the programme. In his Chief Guest address he highlighted the importance of Child Rights and spoke about the rights of the unborn child. This made the audience reflect on the important area of child rights. He also spoke about U.N.Convention of Child Rights. Sri.Francis Thambi, Director, Child Rights Advocacy Foundation was the Guest of Honour. Sessions pertaining to different dimensions of Child Rights were presented with the help of power point presentations and thematic songs so as to create awareness on the topic. The workshop started with an inaugural session and concluded with valedictory session. Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer, Coordinator of Department of Sociology & Social Work and Centre for Community Social Responsibility organized the programme with the support of Dr.M.Venkata Ramana, Programme Officer, Centre for Community Social Responsibility. Dr.V.Venkateswarlu, Dr.M.Trimurthi Rao, Dr.Y.Ashok Kumar and Dr.K.Dhanalakshmi participated in the workshop. All the participants were given certificates.

World Oral Health Day Celebrations

Awareness Programme on Dental Health in Commemoration of World Oral Health Day was organized on 20-03-2018 at ANU College of Architecture and Planning, Acharya Nagarjuna University. Prof.K.John Paul, Registrar of Acharya Nagarjuna University was the chief guest of the programme. He stressed the importance of oral health and congratulated the Coordinator and Programme Officer of Centre for CSR for taking up such important programmes in the campus for the benefit of our students. Dr.Amarnath, Chief Dental Health

Surgeon from Sibar Dental College, Guntur created awareness on ways of brushing, dental care, dental hygiene etc. Narayana and Dr.Srinivasulu Faculty members of Sibar Dental Health Centre participated in the programme. Prof.Janakirama Murthy, Principal ANU College of Architecture and Planning, Ms.Nirupama, Associate Professor and other Faculty members participated in the programme. Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer, Coordinator of Department of Sociology & Social Work and Centre for Community Social Responsibility organized the programme with the support of Dr.M.Venkata Ramana, Programme Officer, Centre for Community Social Responsibility.

7 Day Faculty Development Programme on Rural Community Engagement

7 Day Faculty Development Programme on Rural Community Engagement was organized by Department of Sociology & Social Work & Centre for Community Social Responsibility, Acharya Nagarjuna University in collaboration with National Council of Rural Institutes, Hyderabad, Telangana (Residential Programme) from 21-03-2018 to 27-03-2018 at Acharya Nagarjuna University, Guntur, Andhra Pradesh, India. The Programme Coordinator was Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer Coordinator, Dept. of Sociology & Social Work & Centre for Community Social Responsibility, Acharya Nagarjuna University, and Programme Convenor, Dr.M.Venkata Ramana, Programme Officer, Centre for Community Social Responsibility, Acharya Nagarjuna University.

Total number of participants who participated in the programme were 25 in number drawn from Dr.B.R.Ambedkar University, Srikakulam, Sri Padmavathi Visvavidhyalayam, (Women's University), Tirupati, Krishna University, Machilipatnam and Acharya Nagarjuna University, Guntur.

Inaugural Function

After the registration the programme commenced with the formal inaugural function on 21-03-2018. Dr.V.Venkateswarlu, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology & Social Work invited the guests on to the dais; the president of the programme was Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer Coordinator, Dept. of Sociology & Social Work & Centre for Community Social Responsibility. The programme was inaugurated by Prof.A.Rajendra Prasad, Honourable

Vice-Chancellor of Acharya Nagarjuna University. In his inaugural address he expressed his happiness over having this FDP in our campus. He stressed the importance of organizing such Faculty Development Programmes so as to enrich the Knowledge of Faculty members so that they could contribute towards empowerment of the rural masses. He congratulated the organizers for taking initiative in organizing this programme. Dr.Prasanna Kumar, Chairman, National Institute of Rural Institutes, Hyderabad, Telangana was the Guest of Honour for the inaugural function. In his address he briefed about the various activities taken up by NCRI. He also spelt out the objectives of the Programme and elaborated the scope of research and development activities that could be sponsored by NCRI. He told about Rural Engagement, Rural Development, Rural Management and Rural Technology and how they can be incorporated in the curriculum. He gave various examples of how rural India can be transformed by involving Universities. The Chief Guest and the Guest of Honour was felicitated and the felicitation function was organized by Dr.M.Trimurthy Rao, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology & Social Work. Dr.M.Venkata Ramana, Programme Officer, Centre for Community Social Responsibility briefed about the activities of the Centre. Formal Vote of thanks was proposed by Dr.Ashok Kumar, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology & Social Work. After the formal inaugural function the programme continued with the sessions that were planned. The programme included 5 days theory sessions on various aspects pertaining to rural community engagement supplemented with case studies, group games, group discussion, short films and 2 days field trip to Mangalagiri Weavers Colony and Kondapalli Toy industry so as to expose the participants to the rural realities. Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer briefed about the field trips and its objectives to the participants. They were also oriented about the PRA Technique. They interacted with the people during their field visits and collected the necessary information through case studies. This helped them to supplement the knowledge gained through class room sessions. They gained hands-on experience through their field visits. The resource persons for the various sessions were drawn from the various disciplines to share their expertise to the participants. The resource persons presented their sessions with the help of power point presentations and made it participatory approach through active involvement of the participants. Every theoretical session began with introduction of the Resource person, followed by presentation, active participation by participants and vote of thanks by one of the participants. Every day started with an Interactive session and ended with film pertaining to rural realities. Every participant was given a Programme kit which included NCRI Journal entitled Indian journal of Rural Education and Engagement, Connect the official Newsletter of NCRI, Poster on Engaging Universities in Rural Immersion Camps, Village Development Plans, Sansad Adarsh gram Yojana and Unnat Bharat Abhiyan, Writing pad and pen. After the end of each day Feedback pertaining to the resource person was collected. Data related to Farmers' Resilience and curriculum development was also collected from both the participants as well as the Resource persons. Sri.Vasudeva Rao was present coordinating the entire 7 Day FDP programme where he was present for all the theoretical sessions and field trips and also interacting with the participants in an informal manner as well which helped in rapport building. The attendance of the participants were monitored daily.

Valedictory Function

The programme was concluded with the Valedictory function on 27-03-2018. Dr.M.Trimurthi Rao, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology & Social Work invited the guests onto the dais. The programme was presided over by Dr.Saraswati Raju Iyer Coordinator, Dept. of Sociology & Social Work & Centre for Community Social Responsibility. The Chief Guest for the function Prof.K.John Paul, Registrar of Acharya Nagarjuna University expressed his joy on the successful completion of the 7 Day FDP in our campus and congratulated the organizers for their efforts. He thanked the Chairman of NCRI Dr.Prasanna Kumar for his initiative in organizing this programme which is the first such programme to be organized in the State University of Andhra Pradesh. Sri.Vasudeva Rao, Senior Academic Consultant, NCRI was the Guest of Honour of the function. He expressed his satisfaction in organizing this programme in a systematic manner with the active participation of the participants. Dr.M.Trimurthi Rao, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology & Social Work organized the felicitation function where Prof.K.John Paul and Sri.Vasudeva Rao was felicitated with a shawl and memento. Five participants gave their feedback regarding the programme. They expressed their satisfaction on the way the programme was designed in a systematic manner with field trips that were useful to them, they expressed happiness over the good theoretical inputs, good hospitality and comfortable accommodation. They felt good that Sri.Vasudeva Rao took special interests in all the sessions and the way he coordinated and related well with the participants. Certificates were distributed by Prof.K.John Paul the Chief Guest of the function. Formal Vote of thanks was proposed by Dr.Ashok Kumar, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology & Social Work. The outcome of the FDP was good and we would like to place the proposal of introducing Rural Community Engagement as part of the curriculum by taking it up in the next board of studies meeting in future which is the main objective of conducting this programme in our University. We would like to place on records our deep sense of gratitude to Dr.Prasanna Kumar for granting this programme to us and the trust he had in us. We would like to thank Sri.Vasudeva Rao for his esteemed presence during the programme and his support and guidance which made this programme a success.

