About University

The name, Nagarjuna University is quite significant in that the great Buddhist preceptor and Philosopher Acharya Nagarjuna founded a University on the banks of river Krishna some centuries ago and made it a great centre of learning, attracting a large number of teachers and students from distant parts of the world. The University was established by Act 43 of 1976 of A.P. State Legislature and Governed by Act 4 of 1991. The present Acharya Nagarjuna University is not very far from the haloed spot, as it derives its moral and intellectual sustenance from Acharya Nagarjuna in which Context the University has been renamed Acharya Nagarjuna University through the A.P. Universities (Amendment) Ordinance, 2004, promulgated by the Governor of Andhra Pradesh.

The aspirations of the southern coastal districts of Andhra Pradesh to pursue Post-Graduate education nearer their homes resulted in the establishment of Acharya Nagarjuna University. In 1976, Andhra University started a Post-Graduate Centre in Nallapadu, Guntur Dt., Andhra Pradesh, as an Extension Center to cater to the needs of higher education of the people of this region. It is in the fitness of things that a University should grow from this Center to fulfill the desire of the people of this belt. Accordingly, Nagarjuna University came into being in August 1976.

University got NAAC 'A'Grade, 21st in India and 2nd in AP among top Universities in Asia by Times Higher Education.

About the Department

Established on 1st September, 1979 Courses offered (Regular Course): LL.B. - up to 1999 LL.M. - intake 40 (with four specializations) Labour Laws ; Constitutional & Administrative Law; Law of Crimes; Corporate and Securities Laws.

Theme of the Seminar:

Any woman in the society is free to do anything she wants, any time she wants. Women should be made aware of themselves. They should first be able to convince themselves of their capacity, before they try to convince men. A woman can be intelligent, independent and be feminine at the same time, just as she can be a career woman and a good housewife. 'Discrimination', 'exploitation' and 'suppression' are no words to be used as weapons in the battle of gender. Work is the right of everyone. Women have the right and duty to organize themselves for better protection, and work together with peace, justice and equality for the progress of the nation.

I would throw out the thought that in society at least, the only real sexism comes from people with no sense of reality. Women and men are equally treated in the eyes of the law. Culturally, a woman in India is supposed to remain confined at home for internal domestic routine work and a man on the other hand is the bread earner. However, due to the spread of education a lot of changes could be observed. However, more than ever, opportunities in becoming educated, serving in law, politics, news reporting, science and technology-in fact, most career opportunities-are open to women in this country. More women across India can give wings to their dream and serve the nation.

FOCUS AREAS:

Participants are requested to submit their original and unpublished contribution on the following Sub themes:

- Changing role of women in Indian society
- Rights of Women in Law
- Women in Media
- Women in Politics
- Women in Science and Technology
- Women Employment:
Impediments and constraints
- Legal Standards and policies for welfare of woman
